Notice:

The Organizing Committee of the Balkan Sailing Championship, to be hosted in Volos, is pleased to announce the competition classes in which the event will be held.

The participating sailors will compete in the following classes:

- Optimist
- ILCA 4
- ILCA 6 (Men & Women)

The Balkan Sailing Championship is expected to bring together some of the region's top sailors, offering high-level competition while highlighting Volos as a premier destination for international sailing events.

Further information regarding the competition schedule and accompanying events will be announced in the coming weeks.
