Notice:

Dear competitors,

Please be informed that the championship advertising stickers will be available for collection today after 3:00 PM. You will get correct position of the stickers on the collecting time. Until then, we kindly ask you to refrain from launching your boats into the water.

For those who have already launched their boats, please be advised that it is highly likely you will need to remove them from the water in order to properly affix the required stickers.

We appreciate your understanding and cooperation in ensuring compliance with the regulations.

Kind regards.
