Description

In the first upwind of the eighth race, in the middle of the race course we proceeded with the wind from starboard, the other boat that came with the wind from the left did not give us the right of way, it tacked very late on our bow forcing us to deviate our course to avoid contact (we had to tack). We immediately notified the opponent of the protest, we displayed the red flag and notified the committee at the end of the race. The protester did not carry out any penalties on the race course.
