Question No: 02

Question For: Protest Committee

Question:

What is the jury policy for incidents on the water?

Answer:

The Jury will not usually protest for a breach of a rule of Part 2 unless they observe an apparent breach of good sportsmanship (RRS 2). Examples of breaches where the Jury will consider protesting, include but are not limited to:

- (a) deliberately or knowingly breaking a rule without justification for exoneration and not taking the appropriate penalty;
 - (b) intimidating other boats, often evidenced by unnecessary shouting or foul language directed to other boats;
 - (c) team tactics, sailing to benefit another boat to the detriment of your own position;
 - (d) sailing that results in, or is likely to result in, damage or injury or gaining a significant advantage.
