7. Description Of Incident

At the weather mark WOMBAT was approaching on Starboard tack layline inside the zone. Lucky Jack was approaching on the port tack layline inside the zone, WOMBAT repeatedly yelled Starboard. Lucky Jack tacked directly in front of WOMBAT. Wombat had to head up above close hauled to avoid hitting Lucky Jack.

Wombat's Jib Luffed in the process. If Wombat had not headed up in such a manner there would have been contact. Wombat immediately yelled protest and requested that Lucky Tack do their penalty turns. When Lucky Jack said they were clear ahead Wombat put up their red protest flag. ALL IN #307 was very close ahead of both of us and witnessed the incident.
