7. Description Of Incident

Lazarus on starboard tack Layline approaching mark 1.

Upon entering the three boat length zone. Lazarus on tight Starboard tack lay line and blight on Port Tack.

Danish boat to windward of Lazarus keeping clear.

Blight approach the mark on Port Lay line. Tacking from Port to Starboard, right on the mark establishing an over lap as tack is completed.

Blight aggressively luffed to get around mark. Lazarus tried to keep clear but not enough room or opportunity was provided.

Lazarus hailed windward Boat to keep clear, however sufficient room and opportunity was not given for both Boats to avoid collision.

Subsequently, Lazarus wings collided with Hungarian Boat and substantial damage was made to the wing breaking in three places and unable to complete race 11 and subsequent races the following day due to a repair, taking at least 24 hours.

Lazarus alleges Blight broke rule 18.3, 14 and 16.1, causing serious damage, Lazarus is requesting redress for race, 11, and races on Friday 30th due to repair taking 24 hours to complete.
