PROCEDURAL MATTERS

On water umpires and coaches were permitted to sit in on hearing and observe. All parties advised of their rights and obligations in the hearing.

FACTS FOUND

On questioning the two protestors (Protest 5 and 6), neither party was sure as to how the race committee or jury was informed of the intent to protest and request redress. The on water CHUMP (NW) advised the jury that one of the coaches approached the CHUMP and RC during a subsequent race some time and several races after Race 3 to advise them of the intent. At no time did the boats themselves inform the RC.
