7. Description Of Incident

I was approaching the second upwind mark on the lay line on a starboard tack, approximately at 5 boat lengths from the mark.

NED 218394 was sailing on a port tack towards me, I screamed for room but he did absolutely nothing to change his route. So to avoid collision I was forced to bear away heavily, if I hadn't done so I would have hit him in the middle of his hull.

After bearing away to avoid him I couldn't reach the mark anymore, since I was too low on the lay line, so because of it I had to tack and bear away behind 8 boats that were on a starboard tack.
