Notice:

The splits have been created and are available on YachtScoring

- Course Alpha OD course racing (Saturday & Sunday)
- Course Bravo PHRF course racing (Saturday only)
- Course Charlie PHRF coastal race (Sunday only)

If you have indicated that you will be racing on Saturday and then participating Sunday in the coastal race on Course Charlie. Your boat appears twice with either (Course) or (Coastal) appended to handle these separate events.

Please review and check your class in the published scratch sheets against SI amendment. The classes and splits are different for Course Bravo and Course Charlie.

The splits are defined in the SIs just posted. You are expected to start and will be scored in the class listed for your boat on the scratch sheets. If you believe there is an error in splits, based on the SIs, and you are in the incorrect class, please email egd@securefail.com ASAP.

The SI amendment changes include:

- Removal of unused classes
- Expanding of PHRF splits for course racing Saturday and coastal racing Sunday
- Aligning first warning to NoR to 1050.
- Adjust coastal courses to avoid another race occurring Sunday and adding another course.
