7. Description Of Incident

I was scored UFD by the pin end boat. This is an erroneous decision. I was well under the line, and could not even see the pin end orange flag when sailing reach to the pin. The boat over was instead the other SGP 209051 without the yellow sleeve at the extreme pin end. This can be testified by other sailors in the fleet. I started on the windward side of the fleet and significantly under the line as shown by my transit.
