7. Description Of Incident

On the start we were the leeward boat with a minute to go. Voodoo child was pointing close hauled. Two boats above voodoo child were were pointing low slightly above a beam reach, all on starboard. the boat was very favourite. Voodoo child came within 2 boat lengths and hailed leeward. Giving Rask Kul Skip 2 boat lengths to start to come up. Rask Kul Skip decide not to alter course and said he didnt care if we protested. Rask Kul Skip did not attempt to alter course. It was apparent we needed to alter course for them to avoid the collision. The boat above Rask Kul Skip, Star Watch, was about a boat length to the right of Rask Kul Skip. Both boats continued slightly above a close reach. Until we altered course and then proceeded to go up and accelerate to the start. Rask Kul Skip had room an opportunity to come up but did not, he held course. Star watch also had room and opportunity to come up if Rask Kul Skip decided to go up.
