7. Description Of Incident

In today's first regatta, at the first top mark. We were approaching the mark on starboard while the italian's we're on port. When we were at a half boat length from the mark, the Italians tacked between us and the mark where they did not have enough space. That is why we had to point to the wind in order to avoid collision. We shouted "protest italy" and they never did penalty turns.
