7. Description Of Incident

3rd race of Saturday. Second upwind, halfway to finish line. I was on port tack when a jury boat (orange rib) drove in front of me. Three jury were on the rib looking at me. I luffed up to avoid the boat and its wake but did not have time and collided with the jury boat leaving orange marks on my bow.

Afterwards I was stopped with no boat speed whilst in the wake of the rib and 537, 522 and other overtook me.

I believe this was an improper action by the jury to avoid contact and avoid interfering with the conduct of the race. I feel my score was made worse by no action of my own.
