7. Description Of Incident

I was coming on the layline, on the starboard side, and the other sailor was coming on the other lay line, sailing on the port side. When he was approaching me I said there was no room ("No Room!") but he tacked almost inside my boat and didn't finish his tack properly without hitting my boat. when he hiked to end his tack, since my boat was under his, I capsized and then he ripped my sail with his bow. I couldn't warn the racing committee of my protest intemption since the security boat took me to land after the last boat rounded the mark.

8. Damage Or Injury

My sail was completely ripped apart, unreparable. I will keep it in case the jury wants to see it.
