Notice to Competitors: Declarations of Interest

Date: Sep 12

Officials must declare any potential conflicts of interest (RRS 63.4). In particular, this declaration must include:

1. any personal interest (which may be financial or non-financial) which conflicts, or may conflict, with any competitor, race committee or organizing authority.
2. directorships, partnerships and employments with Member National Authorities, Class Associations, Continental Associations, World Sailing or businesses that are engaged in the sport of sailing or derive any substantial portion of their revenue from sailing;
3. any office held with a Member National Authority, World Sailing Class Association, Continental Association and any other international sailing or sporting bodies;
4. trusteeships or board positions with Member National Authorities, Class Associations, Continental Associations, World Sailing or institutions or charities that are engaged in the sport of sailing or derive any substantial portion of their revenue from sailing; and
5. any material interests arising from close family or personal relationships with any competitor, race committee member or member of an organizing authority.

(See World Sailing Regulation 34).

Notice:

In the course of work as a Race Officials, we are in regular contact and socialize with competitors many of whom we consider friends. We see competitors outside our work as Race Officials in social settings. We engage in rules discussions in the course of our everyday life and on occasion are involved as a participant or presenter in rules seminars and clinics.

We are engaged in social media where some competitors are 'friends' or we follow their social media feeds. This is part of our general interest and engagement in the sport.

In addition, the following are declarations of individual officials:
