7. Description Of Incident

Me, Alexander 7 and Alessio were sailing on port reaching the lay line. Alexander 7 was clear ahead and leeward to me, Alessio was overlapped to windward of me. Alexander 7 initiated a tack without looking. I was about to crash into him, having no room and time to avoid him, so I lifted my kite up. I tangled with Alessio and Alexander 7. Alessio detached first after 10 seconds. After 15 seconds me and Alexander detached. I couldn't start again for another 20 seconds because I was in the middle of arriving sailors rounding the mark. I restarted approx. 35 seconds after the incident after a great portion of the fleet. I believe my score was made significantly worse due to no fault of my own.
