7. Description Of Incident

I was sailing on starboard (on last Downwind leg) when 45 was approaching on port. But 45 neither went leeward nor windward through my way of riding, but jibed right into my course and crashed during the maneuver. I could closely escape a crash with 45 in person, but our kites tangled and both crashed. For a second I got wrapped in the lines, until -luckily- 45's lines broke and I got free again.
