7. Description Of Incident

In the last race (Race 9, Red), I was starting in the middle of the line and the race committee was drifting, therefore, me and the boats around me were over. At the time I did not know this so when I saw my number on the board, I sailed in thinking that I was over and that this race was going to be the last race. (There is a maximum of three races per day and this was the third race of today.) I kindly request a redress
