WINDWARD MARK:

The Race Committee, may, if he deems it necessary, place an offset mark to windward of the starting line. The presence of this offset mark will be signaled on the Race Committee vessel by displaying code flag "D", which shows that this first mark shall be left to port. If under code flag "D" a green flag is displayed, this first mark shall be left to starboard. The compass bearing and distance to the offset mark will be displayed on a board on the Race Committee vessel.

CHANGE OF COURSE:

After the start, a change of course may be decided by the Race Committee at any course mark. In this case, a Race Committee boat, displaying code flag "C" and class flags with repetitive sounds, nearby this mark, will signal the change. From this mark competitors shall sail to the finishing line, including fix marks. This means that each fix mark shall be passed, to the indicated side, whether in the course they are mentioned or not. This change RRS Rule 33
