7. Description Of Incident

THAILAND was 1 and half boat lengths in front of me and 1 boat length to my leeward, as he hit the left layline he tacked to round the mark. He did not have a quick tack due to the wave direction and sailed on port tack. I was slightly below the starboard layline and starboard tack and held a constant heading towards him and i hailed starboard . He did not acknowledge it and I beared away to avoid him and hailed protest immediately. I then tacked to round the mark. He did not do his penalty and so I hailed again on the reach immediately after rounding.
