7. Description Of Incident

I was approaching the upwind mark on the starboard tack layline. I saw two boats coming on the port tack lay line at around three boat lengths before we rounded the mark. I hailed 'starboard' and 'no room' to let them know. However, neither boat responded or did any action so I was forced to head up to avoid colliding with them and I hailed 'protest!' However, as we all rounded the mark, Samuel's (the outside boat of the two port boats) stern collided with my port side beam and simply responded with the words 'it's not my fault'
