7. Description Of Incident

Yesterday, before the races, I went with my logger and friends from the club to measure the temperature, just like on the previous days. There was a big crowd, I went to the lady who took my temperature and showed me "okay", thumbs up and said „thanks”. She didn't give me a pen and there was a lot of chaos and after she showed me okey, she started taking someone else's temperature. On other days, they gave me a pen and showed me where and what to enter, where to sign. I don't feel guilty because I went for the temperature measurement like I did every day and now I have two DNC. At this measurement, there was no queue and the order was just a crowd and big mess.
